

NATIONAL FAMILY ASSOCIATION FOR DEAF-BLIND

Empowering Families with Individuals who are Deaf-Blind

ANNOUNCES

The Steve Perreault Award*

The award is given annually in recognition of Steve Perreault, who worked and volunteered in the field of deaf-blindness nationally and internationally from the 1970s until he passed away in October 2019. Steve promoted strengthening advocacy for families of children with deaf-blindness and helped found NFADB.

Who is eligible for this year's award?

A professional (paid or non-paid non-family member) who:

- ✓ shows outstanding service, advocacy, empowerment or leadership
- ✓ has a lasting and profound impact on
 - one or more children or adults with deaf-blindness
 - families of individuals with deaf-blindness
 - or the deaf-blind community

Who can nominate an individual for this award?

A family member of an individual who is deaf-blind who is a current NFADB Member in good standing (Become a Member)

Deadline?

December 31st

Nomination Process?

- ✓ Complete Nomination Form
- ✓ Submit Two (2) Letters of Support
 - One letter from a family member of an individual who is deaf-blind
 - One letter from a professional
- ✓ Nomination Deadline is December 31st

Announcement of The Steve Perreault Award Winner?

July at the Annual Meeting of the National Family Association for Deaf-Blind

For more information, visit www.nfadb.org or e-mail Award@nfadb.org

*Clickable Hyperlinks